

APICS is the leading professional association for supply chain and operations management.

January 2015 Newsletter

The Albuquerque APICS Chapter hopes you had a safe and Happy New Year.

The APICS Chapter Benchmarking and Recognition (CBAR) program recognizes chapters that have exceeded minimum standards and exemplify excellence in overall chapter management. We are proud to announce the APICS Albuquerque received the 2014 CBAR Platinum Award designation, an admirable accomplishment for an APICS chapter.

As a member of an APICS Platinum Award Winning Chapter, the CBAR designation signifies your chapter's commitment to providing an exceptional membership experience.

Professional Development Meetings

January 22 at 11:30 AM
Albuquerque Convention Center
Cost is $10 for members or $15 for non-members.
Lunch will be provided

We will learn about different business aspects such as contracts, insurance, security, staffing, marketing and logistics in coordinating all the different types of conventions, catering, etc. We will also learn what's involved in a simple event and what's involved in a more complex event.

Explore the relationship of existing and emerging processes and technologies to manufacturing strategy and supply chain-related functions. The course addresses three main topics: aligning resources with the strategic plan, configuring and integrating operating processes to support the strategic plan, and implementing change.

Topics include:

Competitive Market Issues
Choices Affecting Facilities, Supply Chain, Information Technology, and Organizational Design
Configuring and Integrating Internal Processes
Evaluating and Managing Projects

Community Service

The Albuquerque APICS Chapter is committed to helping, not only its members, but also the local community.

If our efforts to assist those around us and make Albuquerque a better place to live, the chapter will be donating our time and effort on January 17, 8:00 AM – 11:00 AM.

Individual Volunteers

Large Groups with 20+ Volunteers

Community Service and Court Volunteers

Feeding 70,000 people across New Mexico takes a lot of donations, food and volunteers. Our New Mexico Food Bank is always looking for volunteers to help us meet the growing needs of our fellow neighbors and helping them access food from our network of partner agencies and hunger relief programs located in every county in the state.

Roadrunner Food Bank of New Mexico has been serving New Mexico's hungry since 1980 thanks to a vision by founder Reverend Titus Scholl. Reverend Scholl started the organization by distributing food to the hungry out of the trunk of a car.

Contact us at webmaster@abqapics.org if you are interested in donating some time and helping us out.
