

NEW MEXICO ASCM FORUM

ASCM is the leading professional association for Supply Chain and Operations Management.

We are excited to welcome you to the New Mexico ASCM Forum.

As an ASCM Forum, we are creating a supportive local community for supply chain professionals, to connect with friends, peers and mentors; learn new skills; and create a better world through supply chain across the span of their careers. Should you have training or CPIM, CSCP, and CLTD certification needs, we will work with you and our ASCM Chapter partners or ASCM directly to fulfill your needs.

We're always on the lookout for members who want to engage in important supply chain discussions and the greater supply chain community. If positioning yourself as a thought leader in supply chain is of interest to you, let's connect soon! I can be reached at contact@abqapics.org.

Again, we're excited to have you as part of our community. We look forward to supporting you for years to come.

The APICS Albuquerque and Colorado Chapters invite you to attend a

Virtual Professional Development Meeting

Wednesday, January 13th, 2020

6:30 - 8:30 pm MST

Cost: Free

Topic: 5 Practical Tips for Reducing Stress and Increasing Happiness

Speaker: Richard Jones

RSVP: contact@abqapics.org

We need to make 2021 a good year. No one is going to do it for us. We cannot sit around waiting for something good to happen any longer! Let's start by making ourselves feel better. Richard will focus on a baseline understanding of positive psychology and its application to stress reduction, employee resilience, and emotional well-being. We will focus on the scientific study of "happiness" and the common factors that contribute to happiness. We will also provide 5 actionable interventions that can be immediately integrated into a person's life. Participants will be able to develop their own individualized "stress management" plan.

Richard Jones holds a Master of Arts Degree in Social Psychology and an MBA with a concentration in Healthcare Management. He holds multiple licenses and certifications in counseling and is also a Certified Employee Assistance Professional. Mr. Jones has 20 plus years of experience providing therapy, counseling services, and psychological education in various settings. Mr. Jones is an expert in employee wellness and resilience. His methods, grounded in positive psychology, are universally recognized as best practice in terms of stress reduction and emotional health.

CPIM Certification

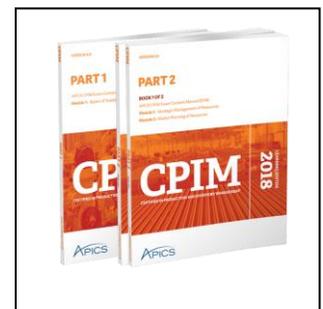

Acquire a working knowledge of the tools and techniques for planning of inventory, including planning techniques such as MRP, CRP, lean, TOC, and projects. Understand the effect of using each technique; know standard measurements for inventory, materials, capacity and supplier performance; and recognize when to escalate issues. Topics include:

- Managing inventory, planning material requirements, planning capacity requirements, and procurement and supplier planning
- Recognizing the importance of supply chain management and deploying supply chain strategies related to scheduling, planning, and sourcing
- Translating product-level plans and schedules generated at the master planning level into requirements that can be procured or produced
- Bridging the master planning area with the execution and control function
- Planning, scheduling, resource allocation, and implementing projects that are used to manage the supply of products and services 2017

APICS CPIM provides

- Increased efficiency across organizational operations
- Understanding of production and inventory activities within the internal operations of a company
- In-depth view of materials management, master scheduling, production planning, forecasting and quality improvement within the confines of the operation.
